MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Willard Whittaker, 30, and Miss Virdeman Smith, 14, were married in Madison.

Adam W. Kelley and Miss Frances Settle were married by Elder F. W. Allen Tuesday.

Robert Howard, a bachelor of 65, was married at Humboldt, Tenn., to Miss Rose Smith, 17.

George Harris and Miss Lizzie Davis were joined heart and hand at William Davis' yesterday.

A. Hart, 77, and Mrs. Fannie Edwards, 75, were married at Benton. He has been married twice before, she thrice.

Jethro Kemper, at Denver, Mo., who had separated from his wife, shot her to death, wounded her daughter and killed himself.

Among the first of Patti's acts after being united to the kid baron was to settle $15,000 a year on him. This is pretty good pay for him even if he is 25 years her junior.

Miss Hester Bryant, of Danville, who lived with Mr. E. S. Rowland, was married at his residence Wednesday night, to Mr. W. S. Glone, a Centre College graduate from Iowa, who has decided to reside in Danville, where he will operate an ice manufacturing plant.

Mrs. Henry Myers, a 64-year-old bride, of Washington, Ind., died from a crushed skull, the result of falling into a cellar while trying to learn the identity of some boys that were characterizing her. The 75-year-old groom wept like a child as his bride of a week was placed beneath the ground.

Rev. F. E. Vance, stationed at Piqua, O., has been suspended from the Methodist ministry for making love to a Cincinnati girl when he had a wife at home. Served him right. A man who could even make believe that he loved a Cincinnati woman if there was any other handy, deserves to be drummed out of society as well as the church.

Miss Samantha Osborn got a verdict for $1,500 for breach of promise against Jacob Huffman at Zanesville, O., who had married another woman. One of the many letters of the boiling temperature variety closed thus: "I will not send you any kisses by mail, but will save them until I see you." Jacob is about 50 years of age.

S. F. Killian, of Brandon, Ala., a farmer, 28 years old, and Miss Buelah Stone, the 15-year-old daughter of James Stone, of Larimore, Ala., were married after a 12 hours' chase by the girl's father, who was opposed to the union because of the youthfulness of his daughter, whom he kept locked up, but who slid down from the window into her lover's arms and gave him the slip.

The marriage of Miss Mary Cash, the pretty daughter of Mr. J. F. Cash, at his residence at 2:30, on the 1st, to Mr. J. Randolph Harris, of Lancaster, was a very quiet affair with only a few friends present. Rev. F. W. Allen pronounced the ceremony and Miss Florence Harris and Robert Henry stood up with the couple while the vows were being taken. Afterwards they with Miss Annie and Mr. Cyrus Gover left for Lancaster, where at the home of the groom a reception was given them. The bride is a graduate of Hamilton College and is a very lovely and cultured young lady, and we congratulate the Lancaster man on winning her.

HUBBLE.

James White has sold his interest in the home place to George and Bill White for $60.

Sam Bourne's horse became frightened a few days ago at a hog on the side of the road, and in trying to run, fell and broke its neck.

L. C. King has returned from the South and reports a dull mule market. Prof. J. W. Hall is here making up a subscription school with fine prospects to begin the last of February and last 24 months. Dr. Lewis reports Mike Rogers' child very low with pneumonia fever. Mr. Wm. Bettis has rented the tollgate property on the Danville & Lancaster pike, near Danville, and will open a grocery store there at once. W. H. Bland and wife have moved to their new home on Dix river. Mrs. Luther Underwood is in Lexington for a few weeks with her daughter. L. G. Hubble is putting a shed to his shop in order to give room for a wood shop. B. W. Glens thinks fresh ice is better, and has waited until now to fill his ice house. Mr. Thos. Wood, of Maywood, is visiting his many friends and relatives in this community, and it is needless to say, that all are glad to see him again.

Judge Cantrill decides that State rewards are offered only with the idea of bringing the criminal to justice and that the dead body can not be recovered on.

The transport Chester, with a Michigan regiment on board, bound for Cuba, struck a severe gale, but only lost the deck load of cots and equipment.

The 6th U. S. Volunteers will be mustered out at Chickamauga, says an order from the war department.

LANCASTER.

Hon. Hugh L. Mason, of Chicago, is the guest of his brother, W. B. Mason. Many more of our people would have heard ex-Gov. Taylor at Nalton's Opera House, if the weather had been pleasant.

On Wednesday J. Randolph Harris, accompanied by his sister, Miss Florence, and his cousin, R. E. Henry, went to Lincoln county, where he was married to Miss Mary Cash. The parties returned that night, when Mr. E. W. Harris, father of the groom, gave a delicious supper and a royal reception.

Hon. J. H. (Happy Jack) Miller is here electioneering among his friends but he devotes most of his time to a lady and seems to be running two races. Speaking of his race in Lincoln, he said: "I expect to win. Mr. North is a good man, but he has plenty of time to go back, and it is now or never with me. It is one of the cases that will not bear waiting on."

As the republicans raised a great howl in 1895 about examining the books at Frankfort, and as they have had time to examine them and have found nothing wrong, it is not reasonable to suppose that the people will elect another republican governor, the present incumbent having been elected on that issue. I am still in favor of nominating Hon. James Black or some man who is not identified with any faction or wedded to any side issue. We should nominate a man who can poll the entire strength of the party and we will win.

Tuesday night was the coldest of the season, the mercury falling from four to six degrees below zero by Wednesday morning. It is likely that the ground hog will not come out as the air in the aperture through which he appears, will be frozen in a solid mass and prevent his escape. On Wednesday morning U. D. Simpson telephoned T. S. Elkin for some meat for breakfast. It didn't come and Simpson went to the butcher shop very much enraged. He was told that the message had not been received. About noon, when it was moderating, Elkin received a message from Simpson for meat for breakfast, and they became reconciled, concluding that the voice had frozen to the wire in the morning.

The fiscal court convened again Tuesday and made an order providing for working the turnpikes. The roads are to be divided into four sections and four commissioners are to take charge of them April 1, at which time the term of Robert Whittaker, the present commissioner, expires. They are to be paid $200 each per year, and will be required to give bond for the faithful discharge of their duties. The commissioners are T. B. Robinson, Robert Noel, J. H. McQuery and Logan Ison. County Clerk Duncan is to receive $50 for keeping a record of their reports. This plan is generally approved and it was adopted without a dissenting voice, as the court had consulted with its attorneys, Letcher Owsley and Capt. Herndon, and prepared the order before court convened.

SOME POINTS ABOUT TEXAS.

(TO THE EDITOR OF THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.)

ERA, TEXAS, Jan. 28.—Having promised many of my friends to write them, I have concluded to use the I. J. as a medium by which to fulfill my promise, as the I. J. is the mediator between the democratic party and the wicked one; yes it is ever ready to lend a helping hand to the weak and trembling brother and oftentimes has saved those that were almost gone into the awful vortex that would hurl them into the blackness of the republican party, where there is weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth.

I will say to those that contemplate leaving Kentucky, come to Texas; there are many advantages for the poor man. The land is as rich as can be. I haven't traveled around very much yet, but so far as I have been, I am perfectly delighted. I find the land in Grayson, Cook, Wise, Montague, Denton and Collin is as good as heart could wish. It is worth on an average $25 per acre and I can see nothing to hinder it from being worth $50 in the near future. Here in Cook county the old settlers say that 15 years ago the land sold for $3 and now for $25 to $30. I think it will be worth $50 for the reasons; 1st, the land is as productive as any in Lincoln county, Kentucky. We have as fine water as any country, at from 15 to 25 feet anywhere, which is cold enough, but very hard. Most all the farmers have deep wells, from 200 to 300 feet. This is a soft water and very cold; 2d, the land produces wheat, corn, oats, barley, sorghum, millet and King Cotton, with fruits and vegetables without end; 3rd, we have as good R. R. facilities as any country and the best free school system in the U. S.

The weather is pleasant, but the people say this is the coldest winter that has been here for a great many years. I have seen ice here one inch thick in vessels that set out of doors and in on the creeks. There is one strange feature in the geography of this country, that is all the creeks head up with in eight or 10 miles of Red River and flow South to the Gulf, a distance of 500 miles. I guess that makes it hot in the summer, the country sitting on its edge with broad side to the sun. They tell me the undertakers have to kill a man to start a grave yard here, it so healthy. I asked an old settler about the drouths and he said: "We have a failure here sometimes." "Well what do you do for corn when you have a failure?" "Oh, well, I don't mean that we don't make any corn. What we call a failure is when we don't make over 25 or 30 bushels per acre. I have lived here for 30 years and I have never seen a time that Texas had to send off to Egypt for corn." Hoping the I. J. a long and prosperous career, I am yours, G. B. CLAYTON.

N. B.—Tell J. Bright that Thorel lost $13 and his boots. Give us another.

MT. VERNON.

Miss Ida Levisay walked to Brodhead last Wednesday evening and boarded the train; it was said to elope with Mr. Wm. Hysinger.

Hugh Miller has made some improvements in the hotel, and as usual, is well prepared to entertain the crowds that stop with him during court.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morrow are stopping at the Miller House. Mr. Morrow has formed a law partnership with Judge Stout, of Williamsburg.

Some inquiry has been made in regard to the S. S. convention of this county. It did great good for the cause and should be revived. The average attendance at the Christian S. S. here has been about the same for the last 15 years.

"Wandering William" spent about a week here in December mind reading and took a large sum of money from the credulous. Mrs. Rouzee and Mrs. Essie Painter are in Louisville. Miss Ella May Saunders will recite in the entertainment at the court-house tonight. Miss Georgia Creed, of Middlesboro, is the guest of Mrs. Hugh Miller. Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt is visiting in Virginia.

Mrs. Wm. Poynter has returned from a visit to Mrs. R. L. Thompson, of Garrard county. Arthur Scott has returned from a visit to Danville. S. C. Franklin has been quite ill. Misses Lola Dyer, McKinney and Nicely, of Raspberry, are rooming at the brick hotel and attending the college. Jack Lawrence has the grip. W. J. Sparks has rented S. H. Martin's large residence.

A trip to Virginia through Eastern Kentucky presents to the eye scenes of artistic beauty. The hills which begin in Rockcastle county grow more rugged and steep until the mountains stand out in bold relief soon after crossing the Virginia line. Clad now in a canopy of snow they are like towering monuments with inscription of time's fingers upon them in the forest trees that still stand brown and leafless to face the winter blasts. Several busy railroad towns are on this route—Livingston, Corbin and Cumberland Gap; while Middlesboro, the magic city, is again coming to the front and prosperity will soon crown the patient populace.

A CANDIDATE.—Gov. Taylor, who has been one time out of number, and ought to know, thus describes a candidate: "Every honest man who runs for office is a candidate for trouble; for the fruits of political victory turn to ashes on the lips. To me there is nothing in this world so pathetic as a candidate. He is like a mariner without a compass, drifting on the tempest-tossed waves of uncertainty, between the smiling cliffs of hope and the frowning crags of fear. He is a walking petition and a living prayer; he is the pack horse of public sentiment; he is the dromedary of politics. And even if he reaches the goal of his ambition he will soon feel the beak of the vulture in his heart and the fang of the serpent in his soul."

THE SAVAGES OF GRIP. The costliest bicycle in the world has just been finished at a gun factory in Vienna. It will cost 500,000 gulden, which is a little more than $275,000. The owner is a rich South African diamond king and mine owner, who will present the machine to his wife on her next birthday. It is inlaid with precious stones and diamonds on every possible part.

Camp Benning, United Confederate Veterans, of Muscogee county, Ga. adopted resolutions denouncing the petition sent from that county, with 90 signers, asking for the Federal pensions for Confederate soldiers.

CHANCELLOR BLANTON

ENJOYS A JOKE EVEN AT HIS OWN EXPENSE.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

The Climax, of this city, copies in its issue of today your editorial notice of Hon. C. J. Bronston's recent address to the law students of Central University, the humor of which I enjoyed along with your many other friends and admirers.

The only possible exception I can take to your editorial is the intimation that there is any sort of restriction on free thought or free speech to the University, and I am glad of the opportunity to state that we have students of all religious and political creeds: democrats, republicans and populists; protestants of all the denominations, Catholics and Jews, and they all have the same rights and privileges and are equally protected in them. And not only so we recognize and give opportunities to the young men of the institution to hear distinguished men discuss all the great questions of the day. The University is for the education of freemen.

The Hon. C. J. Bronston is a native of Madison county and has many friends and admirers in the county. He was for two years, when a very young man, a brilliant professor in the University, and it gave me real pleasure to extend to him the invitation to address the students. We talked the matter over together and we agreed on the subject of the address. I knew very well that the colonel was an anti-expansionist and a strong silver man, and I knew he could not discuss the "Evils of the Republic" from his standpoint without touching on those questions. So that there was no surprise on my part; on the contrary I greatly enjoyed the eloquent speaker.

The fact is there are some of us old men who could hardly be surprised at anything in the political line since the events of '96-'7; except it may be to hear a silver democratic orator, even that he be as able and eloquent as Senator Bronston, speak on any subject without denouncing "the crime of '73."

The late Senator Everts' little story at the expense of Senator Stewart, of Nevada, which is going the rounds of the papers, is in point: The story was told at a dinner given in honor of Senator Spooner, when the latter was leaving public life some years ago. After the coffee was served one after another of his colleagues arose and pronounced a eulogy. When Mr. Stewart's turn came he said that while Spooner was a good fellow he was all wrong on finances, and proceeded to repeat the old speech he had made so many times in the Senate. Senator Everts, who next took the floor, said that Stewart reminded him of a man he had met in an insane asylum one time when he was acting as a member of a board of visitors. The superintendent told them that they must say cheerful things to the patients, and therefore when he saw a lunatic sitting astride of a table beating it with a whip and pretending to drive it with a pair of string lines he walked up to him and said: "That's a fine hobby you have there, my friend."

"It isn't a hobby," answered the lunatic. "It's a horse."

"What's the difference between a horse and a hobby?" suggested Mr. Everts. The lunatic turned on him with an air of supreme contempt and remarked: "You blank fool, anybody can get off a horse, but nobody ever got off a hobby."

Senator Bronston performs well whether he is riding a horse or a hobby, and unlike Senator Stewart, he knows when to get off and on.

L. H. BLANTON.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Waitt of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

Hicks predicts for February: About 1st, fair weather, growing warmer with rain and snow 4th to 5th; very much warmer 8th to 9th and storms 10th to 12th. Cold wave 14th to 16th. From 21st into March some of the heaviest sleet storms of the whole winter.

THE DEADLY GRIP.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs! Don't neglect the "grip" or you will open the door to pneumonia and consumption and lay the death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-ending cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets, or poor, cheap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

The present cold snap has been the severest for years in the Northwest. Many deaths from freezing are reported, thousands of stock have perished and the railroads are all out of shape from the drifted snow.

MR. POLK MILLER, of Richmond, Va., whom Mr. Watterson describes as "the greatest one man show in America," arrived at 1:24 yesterday in fine condition to entertain our people, which he was to do last night in song and stories of "The Old Times Down South." Hon. R. C. Warren was to introduce the entertainer, which means that it was neatly and handsomely done.

DISCHARGED.—John Haley, who was arrested in Louisville and brought here on the charge of robbing a passenger named Woodson on a south-bound night train, was discharged at his trial before Judge Bailey yesterday. Woodson failed to appear against him and the testimony of Capt. J. W. Rose and others was not sufficient to hold him. This was the second time set for the trial with Woodson absent both times.

TOM BAKER, who is in jail here awaiting action on his sentence for life, will soon know his fate. Attorney General Taylor and Commonwealth's Attorney W. R. Ramsey, of London, for the Commonwealth, and Judge J. H. Tinsley, of Barbourville, argued his case in the court of appeals Tuesday and it was submitted. Baker was convicted of the killing of W. L. White, near Manchester, Clay county. The parties were members of the families of the Baker-Howard feud fame.

IT was pretty cold Monday but the signal service gave no warning of the heavy fall in temperature and the snow, so people were unprepared for below zero weather and seven inches of the beautiful Tuesday morning. It was bitter cold, no thermometer in town showing higher than six below zero and from that down to 14. Stanford is the coldest place in the State or she has the worst thermometers, the average of which put the snap about 10 below zero. Another inch of snow fell Tuesday, Wednesday was clear and warmer, while yesterday it was not below freezing at any time. Fair Friday is the present indication.

LOTS OF LUGGAGE.—In checking up his business, Agent J. S. Rice finds that he has handled during the seven years he has had charge of the L. & N. office here 50,400 pieces of baggage. This is an average of 600 per month or 20 per day. Each piece of baggage checked has to be recorded, so it will be seen that that small part of his business has taken no little time and trouble. Only a few days ago three drummers came here on the same train and had between them 18 trunks and two valises. Assistant Agent Ernest Warren looks after the baggage and he says the number of trunks carried is not only increasing but the weight of them is being increased as well.

BURGLARIZED AND BURNED.—It is generally believed now that George C. Fish's home near Mt. Vernon was robbed before it was burned. Nearly $400 was in the house in paper, gold and silver and a careful search failed to find any of the two metals except a few coppers and a little melted silver, which was in another part of the house and which belonged to one of the children. Mr. Fish was administrator and had received in cash about $300 and he and his wife together had nearly $100, all of which was left in the house by a peculiar accident while they visited a relative. He had two large pocket books, almost exactly alike, in one of which he kept receipts and the other cash. He intended to put the one containing money in his pocket, but instead picked up the one containing papers, and he did not know his mistake till considerably after the house was burned. Mr. Fish is not blessed with a great deal of this world's goods and his loss is generally deplored. There is no clue to the guilty party, but an effort is being made to find the rascal who applied the torch.

CHANGE OF PUBLICATION DAYS.—For very many and very satisfactory reasons, we have decided to change the time of printing the INTERIOR JOURNAL from Monday and Thursday nights to Tuesday and Friday mornings, and will begin the new order next Tuesday.

Our correspondents will continue to send their matter at the same time as now, to be supplemented by telegraph or telephone the mornings of publication. By the new arrangement we will catch mails immediately North and South on the L. & N., on the Kentucky Central and the Cincinnati Southern.

The only drawback will be the connection of the Cincinnati Southern, South, as there is never direct connection at Junction City. Beginning next Tuesday at 10 o'clock A. M., the hour that we will then and thereafter go to press, our patrons in town can count on receiving the paper as promptly and as regularly as it has been delivered at night in the past.

100 BUSHELS clover seed to sell at reduced price. B. K. Wearen & Son.

STUDENT KILLED.—G. Howard Bruce, our Danville reporter, telephoned us that John Brown, a Centre College student from Owen county, was struck and instantly killed Wednesday by the north-bound passenger train on the Cincinnati Southern. He was with some companions coasting near the railroad, and was standing on the track as the train approached. The other boys shouted to him to get out of the way. He saw the locomotive, became excited, and finally jumped, but was struck while in the air. His back was broken. He was about 18 years old and a member of the junior class. Yoder Brown, a brother, died very suddenly while at Centre College a few years ago.

GOV. TAYLOR.—With the mercury below zero and the snow eight inches deep, some 300 people heard Gov. Taylor lecture on "The Fiddle and Bow" at Walton's Opera House, Tuesday night, thereby proving that when people want to go to an entertainment they never mind the weather, even if the wind does blow. Most of the audience thought themselves well repaid for braving the elements, but a few, whose expectation had possibly been too high, say they were disappointed. The lecture is said to have been written to defend the governor's rather prolix bestowal of the pardoning prerogative and make money for the lecturer at the same time. If it succeeds in the former as well as it does in the latter object, it is a success for it has earned him many a hundred dollars. As an anecdote teller the governor is par excellence, he does a song and act to perfection, but his oratorical flights with their diarrhoea of words and a somewhat of a constipation of ideas, rather clogs on the mental appetite after one or two repetitions. The Maccabees, who brought the governor here, came out at the big end of the horn we are glad to say, even after paying a big price for him and Mike Elkin, who engineered the engagement, is happy. Hon. J. N. Saunders was given the honor of introducing the lecturer, which he did briefly, tastefully and eloquently and his effort so pleased the governor that he remarked: "There's gubernatorial timber in that young man which I expect to hear of you Kentuckians using before many years." Then it was Saunders' time to feel pleased and he felt, very decidedly so too, when the audience applauded the suggestion enthusiastically.
